

Rule Book

- I-card is mandatory for all participating candidates.
- A proper formal attire must be maintained throughout the competition by all the participants.
- The safety of all the equipment's / hardware / laptops brought by the participants must be taken care of by them, the college will not be responsible for the damage / loss of any object.
- All the participants exhibiting their projects for concepts must be present for all three days with all the group members, in worst case at least one group member must be present.
- The timings of the competition are :-
Friday - 12:30 pm to 06:00 pm
Saturday - 09:00 am to 06:00 pm
Sunday - 09:00 am to 11:30 am
- One member of the project group must report at the Concepts desk which is located near the Reading Hall on the 1st floor A2 (B) Wing.
- If the above mentioned rule is not met then the group will be considered as absent and no judge will be assigned to inspect the project.
- During the inspection of the project if the group members are not present then that particular project will be not assessed.
- Each project will be judged at least twice.
- Participation certificates will be provided to all participants but only after the completion of the event i.e. after the final prize distribution near the judging room on the 1st floor A2(B) Wing.
- Personal collection of certificates will be available also from Monday – Wednesday i.e. 26th March to 28th March.
- If any participant is unable to collect the certificate in person then an envelope worth Rs 100/- has to be bought from the college and then the certificates will be sent to them on the given address by post.
- If a group wishes to leave the venue early for a day then they must inform the Judging team prior and then only leave.
- All the participants whose project is Sponsored must bring an NOC (No Objection Certificate) this is to avoid any further legal issues.
- If any domain has less than 7 projects then only the certificate's and trophies would be awarded to the winning project's, but no prize money will be awarded.
- All the winners will be awarded with the prize money only in the form of Cheque's.
- The InC 2018 team reserves all the rights for any issues during the event.